EXECUTIVES

DAVID MONTGOMERY

General Partner, President and Chief Executive Officer

David Montgomery's first association with the Phillies was as a young fan, growing up in Philadelphia, attending hundreds of games at Connie Mack Stadium. He realized every baseball fan's dream when he started working for the club in 1971 just in time for the opening of the new Veterans Stadium.

After graduation with an MBA from University of Pennsylvania's Wharton School, Montgomery's career began in the Phillies Sales Office selling season and group tickets. He advanced to positions as Marketing Director and then Director of Sales before becoming Executive Vice President after the 1981 season.

He was elevated to Chief Operating Officer in 1992 and succeeded Bill Giles as General Partner, President and Chief Executive Officer on June 20, 1997. In 1994, Montgomery was designated as Co-General Partner and acquired an ownership interest in the team.

Montgomery's association with the Phillies from Connie Mack to Veterans Stadium has now extended to Citizens Bank Park, the Phillies' brand new major league ballpark which opened to very positive reviews in April of 2004. Under his leadership and watchful eye, the Phillies have constructed new state-of-the-art facilities in both Philadelphia and Clearwater, Florida, with the 2004 opening of Bright House Networks Field, the home of Phillies Spring Training and the Clearwater Threshers.

During his 34 years in the game, Montgomery has been active in a wide range of areas for Major League Baseball. He is presently Vice Chair of the Board of Directors of Major League Baseball Enterprises (formerly MLB Properties). He also serves on MLB's Schedule Committee and is a member of MLB's Long Range Planning Committee.

Locally, Montgomery is an active alumnus of the University of Pennsylvania where he served as a Trustee. He is the current Chair of the Policy Board of WXPN Radio - 88.5FM, the University's member-supported radio station. He also serves on the University's Board of Overseers of the Annenberg Center for Performing Arts.

In addition to his Penn activities, Montgomery serves on the boards of Need in Deed, a non-profit service-learning organization working with children in Philadelphia public schools, and the Philadelphia Sports Congress. He is a past Board Chairman of both the Schuylkill Center for Environmental Education and the Woodlynde School, a private K-12 school in Strafford, PA.

In 2004, Montgomery served as the Honorary Chair of the Benefit Auction and Reception of the Bethesda Project, a faith-based community helping Philadelphia's homeless, and as a co-chair of the Celebrity Pool Tournament benefiting Philadelphia Futures, a program that helps inner-city students prepare for and complete college.

Under Montgomery's leadership, the Phillies continue to broaden their community outreach, supporting hundreds of charities and non-profit groups through contributions and other assistance provided by Phillies Charities, Inc., the club's charitable arm. In addition, Philadelphia's boys and girls have participated in educational programs funded by the Phillies and are playing baseball through the Phillies-sponsored RBI and Rookie League programs.

Indicative of the Phillies' emphasis on charitable efforts under Montgomery, the Children's Scholarship Fund in Philadelphia presented the ballclub with the "Citizen of the Year" award in 2004 in recognition of "the team's dedication and involvement in Philadelphia education." The ALS Association, Greater Philadelphia Chapter, also honored the Phillies in 2004 for "20 years of caring and commitment to the ALS cause." Since 1984, the Phillies' fund-raising efforts have contributed $7.4 million to the goal of finding a cure for Lou Gehrig's disease.

Montgomery was born June 26, 1946, and grew up in the Roxborough section of Philadelphia. He is a graduate of William Penn Charter School (1964) and the University of Pennsylvania (1968) where he majored in history. He received his MBA from the Wharton School of the University of Pennsylvania in the fall of 1970.

BILL GILES
Chairman

Baseball has been Bill Giles' life. His father, the late Warren C. Giles, was President and General Manager of the Cincinnati Reds (1946-51) and President of the National League (1951-69). Bill's mother died when he was nine so he spent long hours and a lot of days with his father at Crosley Field in Cincinnati. Bill's first job in baseball came when he was "around 14" years of age. It wasn't a glamorous position, as he did all kinds of odds and ends in the Cincinnati Reds' Public Relations Department.

Giles has held numerous positions with two National League teams, Houston and Philadelphia. He's served on numerous committees in baseball and has been one of Philadelphia's most visible community activists. Currently Chairman of the Phillies, Bill was appointed Honorary National League President early in the 2001 season, the first father-son combination at that level in baseball history. Bill represents the NL at the All-Star Game and post-season play. The appointment by Commissioner Bud Selig is a testimony of Bill's stature in the game.

Following graduation at Denison University, Giles spent three years in the U.S. Air Force as a navigator in the Strategic Air Command.

His baseball career took on a full-time status in 1959 when he was named GM of the Nashville Vols, a Cincinnati minor league team. From there, he moved to the expansion Houston Colt 45s. While in Houston, Giles served as Traveling Secretary, Publicity Director, Director of Public Relations and Promotions and Vice President. With the opening of Veterans Stadium approaching, the Carpenter family brought Giles to Philadelphia to run the business end of the operation.

Giles began his Phillies career as Vice President, Business Operations, following the 1969 season. Three years later he was promoted to Executive Vice President.

When the Carpenters put the team up for sale in the spring of 1981, Giles organized a group that purchased the team on October 29, 1981. He remained President of the club until June 20, 1997, when he moved up to Chairman. In the summer of 2001, Giles was nominated to serve as Honorary President of the National League.

Giles is among Philadelphia's more civically involved citizens: Chairman Emeritus of the Board, Philadelphia Convention and Tourism Bureau; member of the Executive Committee, Philadelphia Chamber of Commerce and Philadelphia Sports Congress; past President of the Boy Scouts of America; on the board of the Pennsylvania Chamber of Commerce, Greater Philadelphia First and the Police Athletic League; and a member of the Union League and Rotary Club.

Giles has been honored many, many times for his contributions to the city. Among the awards: Distinguished Citizen of the Year by the Boy Scouts of America; Garry Maddox Award by the Philadelphia Child Guidance Center; Police Athletic League Man of the Year (1993), Philadelphia Boys Choir Man of the Year (1994); Anti-Defamation League Man of the Year (1994); American Red Cross Man of the Year (1996), Vision of Philadelphia Award (1996) by Philadelphia Hospitality, Inc., and the American Heart Association's Man of the Year.

Giles, who was born in Rochester, NY, on September 7, 1934, resides in Villanova, PA, with his wife, Nancy. They are the parents of three sons, Michael, Joseph and Christopher. Michael is married to Annette. Joe and his wife, Paula, have four children, Caroline, Dana, Molly and Max. Chris and his wife, Amy, have two children, Eliza and Warren.

JERRY CLOTHIER
Senior Vice President, Chief Financial Officer

Jerry Clothier joined the Phillies in 1982 and currently serves as Senior Vice President/CFO. He previously worked for Price Waterhouse in their Management Consulting Practice and was admitted to the firm's partnership in 1981.

Jerry was born in Claymont, DE, on October 1, 1945 and grew up in Swarthmore, PA. He graduated from Swarthmore High School in 1963 and the University of Delaware in 1967, receiving a BA degree in accounting. He then served three years in the U.S. Navy as a Supply Officer from 1967 to 1970 and later attended the Wharton School of the University of Pennsylvania, receiving a MBA in finance in 1973.

Jerry serves as a Trustee to the Pension Committee of the Major League Baseball Players Benefit Plan, as a member of the University of Delaware Visiting Committee on Athletics and as a member of the Free Library of Philadelphia Board of Trustees.

Jerry lives in the West Mount Airy section of Philadelphia with his wife, Sherry. They have two daughters, Amy and Kelly, and one grandchild.

In 1981 he left Houston to become Public Relations Director for the Pittsburgh Pirates where he remained for five years before taking a position with Tal Smith in 1986. He was an associate at Tal Smith Enterprises, a sports consulting company which specializes in representing baseball teams in salary arbitration, contract negotiations and other baseball-related matters, until re-joining the Phillies on May 5, 1989 as Assistant to the General Manager. In 1995 he was promoted to Assistant General Manager.

He is a 1977 graduate of Temple University where he played baseball and received his bachelor's degree in journalism. In 2003, Ed received the Lew Klein Alumni in the Media Award and was inducted into the Temple University School of Communications and Theater Hall of Fame.

WE BUILT IT... AND THEY CAME

In the first season of Citizens Bank Park, the Phillies finished third in the National League in attendance with a franchise-record figure of 3,250,092. They ranked second in the league in average attendance at 40,626, behind only the Dodgers (43,065). With a club-record 44 sellouts, the Phillies easily shattered their previous record of eight (1993, 2003) and had 10 consecutive sellouts from July 8 through August 9.

OUTTA HERE!

With 215 home runs, the Phillies set a franchise record and finished second in the National League, behind the Cubs (235). The previous record of 186 was set in 1977. Todd Pratt's first home run of the season, 9/11 at Shea Stadium, was the team's record-breaking 187th. When the Phils reached 200 homers for the first time in team history, it left seven active franchises that had never done it: Marlins, Mets, Royals, Padres, Devil Rays, Pirates and Expos.

Other home run notes...

* Had a club-record nine players reach double digits in home runs: Jim Thome (42), Bobby Abreu (30), Pat Burrell (23), David Bell (18), Mike Lieberthal (17), Placido Polanco (17), Chase Utley (13), Jimmy Rollins (14) and Jason Michaels (10). The previous record was seven players, done five times, most recently in 2002.

* Finished second in the NL in home runs at home, setting a new club record with 113. The previous record of 101 (at Veterans Stadium) was set in 1977. In fact, the Phillies' 113 was a Philadelphia record, besting the previous record of 109, set by the Philadelphia A's in 1932. The Phillies hit 102 home runs on the road in 2004, which was tied for third-most in the NL.

* Led the NL in home runs in May (38) and June (44) and had 37 in September, one less than the Cubs (38).

* Their 44 home runs in June set a club record for most in one month. The original record of 42 was set in June of 1977.

* Hit back-to-back home runs nine times, tying the club record for a single season set in 1980. Abreu, Thome and Burrell became the first Phillies trio to hit back-to-back-to-back home runs twice.

* Hit nine pinch-home runs, which ranked tied for second in the majors behind the Rockies' 11. It was the club's most pinch-homers since hitting 10 in 1984 and tied for third-most in club history.

BEST DEFENSE EVER

The Phillies set a franchise record and finished second in the National League with a .987 fielding percentage, just one point behind the Dodgers. Their 81 errors were fewest in team history and second-fewest in the league (Dodgers had 73).

The previous records were a .986 fielding percentage in 2002 and 86 errors in 1981. 2004 marked the ninth time in the last 10 years that the Phillies finished in the top five for fielding (1998 - 9th). Individually, Placido Polanco led all NL second basemen with a .995 fielding percentage and Jimmy Rollins finished second among NL shortstops at .986.

SEPTEMBER TO REMEMBER

At 19-8 in September, the Phillies tied with the Yankees for the second-most wins in all of Major League Baseball and had the second-best winning percentage (.704). Houston led the majors in both categories (20-7, .741). It was the most wins in September for the Phillies since 1983, when they won 22 games that month en route to the World Series. It was the club's most wins in any month since winning 20 in May of 2001.

SEVENTH HEAVEN

From the seventh inning on this season, the Phillies outscored their opponents, 297-227 (+70). The biggest difference in runs scored by inning came in the seventh, where the Phils scored 116 runs (their most of any inning) and allowed 86 (+30).

BULL(PEN) DOGS

In their last 39 games of the season (August 20-October 3), the Phillies bullpen went 11-7 and posted a 2.77 ERA (44 ER, 143.2 IP). From September 1-11, the team's relief staff strung together a 28.0-inning scoreless streak, the longest such streak for the Phillies since June of 1975, when they had a 29.0-inning streak.

DYNAMIC TRIO

Pat Burrell (61), Jim Thome (61) and Bobby Abreu (60) became the first trio in Phillies history with 60 RBI each prior to the All-Star break. Previously, they became just the second Phillies trio since 1993 with at least 50 RBI each prior to the All-Star break. In 2001, Abreu (52), Travis Lee (53) and Scott Rolen (52) did it. In 1993, the Phils had four players do it: Darren Daulton (65), Dave Hollins (53), Pete Incaviglia (53) and John Kruk (51).

BORN TO RUN

With 100 stolen bases in 127 attempts, the Phillies had the second-best stolen base percentage in the major leagues. Only the Mets' 82.3% was better (107-for-130). It was also the second-best percentage for the club since 1960. Only the 1992 Phillies had a better percentage (80.4%, 127-for-158). Bobby Abreu finished fourth among NL players with an 88.9 stolen base percentage (40-for-45).

LIKE (GRAND)FATHER, LIKE (GRAND)SON

Third-generation player David Bell hit for the cycle on Monday night, June 28 against the Expos at Citizens Bank Park. For David, it was his first career cycle, but for the Bell family it was not.

Fifty-three years earlier, on June 4, 1951, David's grandfather, outfielder Gus Bel., hit for the cycle while a member of the Pirates. The amazing coincidence was that Gus did it at Shibe Park in Philadelphia against the Phillies.

ROADIES

At 44-37 (.543), the Phils finished the season with a winning road record for the first time since the NL pennant-winning season of 1993, when they went 45-36 (.556). From 1994-2003, the club went 334-441 (.431) on the road. During those years, the best road winning % they posted was in 2002 (40-41, .494). This season, the Phils went 20-8 (.714) in their final 28 road games.

FINALLY CAUGHT SOME FISH

From April 16, 2003 through July 29, 2004, the Phillies went 3-23 (.115) against the Florida Marlins. Their batting average in those 26 games was .247 and the Phils' pitchers posted a 5.65 ERA, allowing double digits in runs in six of the 26 games. However, the Phillies finally caught fire and finished the 2004 season with a 6-1 (.857) record against Florida. In those final seven games, the Phillies hit .317 with 14 home runs and 51 runs scored (7.3 runs/game). The pitching staff posted a 3.80 ERA with a .227 opposing average.

SMALL BALL

After finishing last in the National League in 2003 with only 46 sacrifices, the Phillies improved to 54 in 2004 (12th in NL). Jimmy Rollins also had a career-high 10 bunt hits.

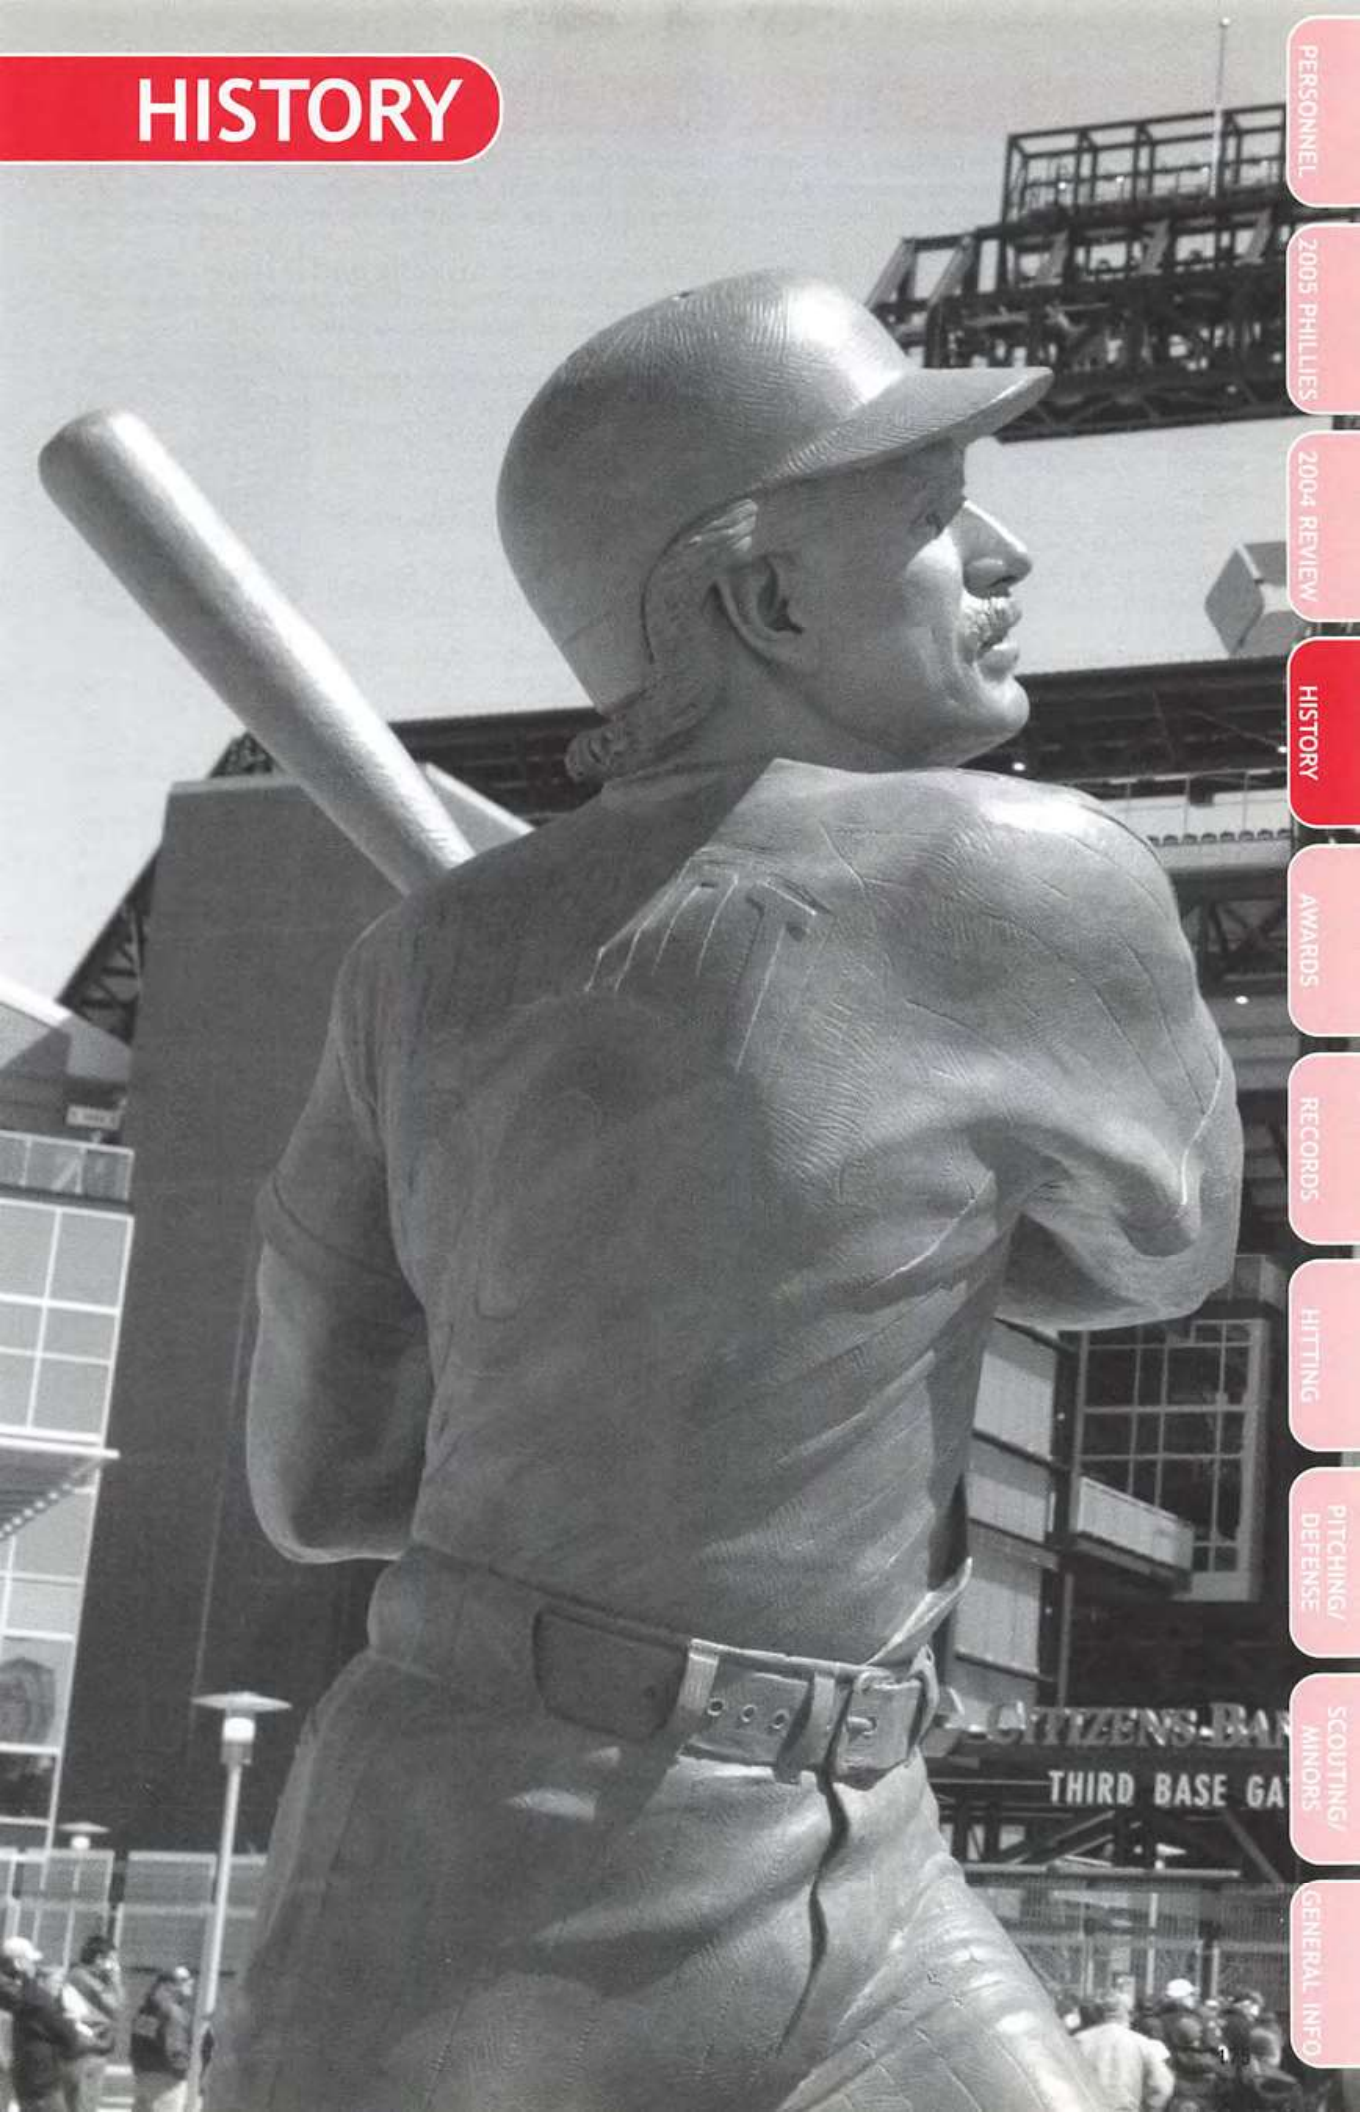
HISTORY



PHILLIES TEAM HISTORY

Philadelphia, a city rich in history and tradition, has played an integral part in professional baseball's history.

While the Cincinnati Red Stockings of 1869 are recognized as the first all-salaried team, Philadelphia's earliest team, the Athletics, followed soon after in 1870. The next year, the National Association was formed and the Athletics joined that league.

When the Association disbanded in 1876, several of the stronger teams formed the National League, as it is still known today. The charter members were the Boston Red Caps, Chicago White Stockings, Cincinnati Red Stockings, St. Louis Brown Stockings, Hartford Dark Blues, New York Mutuals, Louisville Grays and the Philadelphia Athletics.

Alfred Reach

The very first National League game was played in Philadelphia on April 22, 1876, at 25th and Jefferson Streets. Boston won, 6-5 before an estimated crowd of 3,000.

Resting in seventh place with a 14-45 record, the Athletics couldn't make their final western trip because of insufficient funds. The team was immediately expelled from the league.

Philadelphia was without a National League franchise until a similar fate hit the Worcester (MA) Brown Stockings six years later.

Worcester faced financial difficulties and was about to fold when Alfred Reach, a Philadelphia sporting goods founder, bought the Brown Stockings and moved them to Philadelphia.

Reach named the team the Phillies, a takeoff on the team's geographic roots, "Philly." Phillies is the longest-running name for any team in the National League.

FIRST GAME

History shows the Phillies played their first game on May 1, 1883, losing to the Providence Grays, 4-3, at Recreation Park, 24th and Columbia Avenues. The crowd was estimated at 1,200.

It was the start of a tradition in which 1,765 players have put on a Phillies uniform and over 109 million spectators have attended games in the city.

In 1887, the Phillies moved into a new "magnificent park" at Broad and Huntingdon Streets, which later became known as Baker Bowl (capacity 15,000). An estimated 20,000 fans jammed the park for the first game on April 30, a 19-10 win over the New York Giants.

Pat Moran

The Phillies had to share the Philadelphia baseball scene when the American League was formed in 1901. One of the eight teams was the Athletics under manager Connie Mack.

The Athletics enjoyed more success than the Phillies and thus were more popular. The A's won six pennants in their first 15 years while the Phillies could muster just one.

That first championship came in 1915 when Pat Moran, a former catcher with the Phillies, led them to the pennant in his first year as manager. Grover Cleveland Alexander, a 31-game winner, won the first World Series game against the Boston Red Sox, who then swept the next four games.

While the A's had a strong run in the 1930s (three pennants, including two straight World Championships in 1929-30), the Phillies floundered. Outfielder Chuck Klein led an awesome attack but an awful pitching staff kept the Phillies from winning.

Baker Bowl began to deteriorate physically when some wooden bleachers gave way in 1927, forcing the Phillies to play a few games at Shibe Park (home of the A's). Finally, after 51 years at their stadium, the Phillies moved permanently to Shibe Park on July 4, 1938, splitting a doubleheader with Boston, a 10-5 loss and a 10-2 win.

While the A's remained stable under the Shibe family, ownership of the Phillies seemed to change constantly. From 1903 to 1943, the club had ten different owners.

CARPENTER ERA BEGINS

Perhaps the most significant move in Phillies history came when the Carpenter family of duPont wealth in Wilmington (DE) bought the team on November 23, 1943, for an estimated $400,000.

In an effort to stimulate more interest in the club, Bob Carpenter Jr., the new president, announced a contest was being held to find a nickname for the Phillies. The name Blue Jays was chosen from among 623 suggestions.

Although it still maintained the official Phillies title, the club was known as Blue Jays for the 1944 and 1945 seasons. The new name was used heavily during that time, but then usage began to drop off in the following years. The Blue Jays name never appeared in the newspapers after 1947.

When Carpenter took over as president, he began to pour money into building a minor league system.

The efforts paid off rather quickly when a young team, nicknamed the Whiz Kids, won the 1950 pennant. Dick Sisler hit a dramatic three-run homer in the 10th inning at Ebbets Field to sink the Brooklyn Dodgers, 4-1, on the last day of the season. Robin Roberts won 20 games that season, the first of six straight 20-win seasons. Center fielder Richie Ashburn started a streak of hitting over .300 for seven straight years, including two batting titles. Unfortunately, a world title eluded the Phillies as they were swept by the New York Yankees in four straight games.

Eddie Sawyer's young club was expected to be a force for a few years but a third-place tie in 1953 was the best they could do.

The A's, meanwhile, began to slide. After finishing last in 1954, their 11th eighth-place finish in 23 seasons, the A's were sold and moved to Kansas City. Once again, Philadelphia was a one-team baseball town.

Shibe Park was renamed Connie Mack Stadium in honor of the A's owner/manager in 1953. But it's worth noting that as early as 1953, a new stadium in Philadelphia was envisioned by Mayor Richardson Dilworth. Fourteen years and many disagreements later, ground was broken for Veterans Stadium, which finally opened with the Phillies hosting the Montreal Expos on April 10, 1971.

Under the leadership of Ruly Carpenter, who replaced his dad as President in 1972, and General Manager Paul Owens, the Phillies dominated the National League East in the mid-1970s. They won three consecutive division titles starting in 1976 but couldn't get over the hump until 1980, a year after they signed free agent Pete Rose.

Under manager Dallas Green, the Phillies made it to the World Series that year by defeating the Houston Astros in a gut-wrenching National League Championship Series. Sisler's historic homer in 1950 was replaced as the greatest moment in Phillies history at precisely 11:29 p.m. on Tuesday, October 21, 1980, when Tug McGraw struck out Kansas City's Willie Wilson to give the franchise its first World Championship.

The powerful Phillies teams of that era were anchored by two Hall of Famers, Steve Carlton, the first pitcher to win four Cy Young Awards, and third baseman Mike Schmidt, a three-time MVP.

CARPENTER FAMILY SELLS

The end of a different era occurred after the 1981 season. Citing escalating player salaries, the Carpenter family put the Phillies up for sale. Bill Giles, Executive Vice President under Ruly Carpenter, and five other partners purchased the team for $30 million.

In just the second year of this new ownership group, the Phillies won their fifth Eastern Division title in eight years. Adding two veterans, Tony Perez and Joe Morgan, to an experienced team created the nickname, Wheeze Kids.

Owens, who went from the front office to manage the team in July, guided the Phillies to the World Series for the fourth time by eliminating the Los Angeles Dodgers in the NLCS. The Baltimore Orioles, however, won the World Series, 4-1.

From generation to generation, fans' heroes change. Players such as Alexander, Klein, Roberts, Ashburn, Carlton and Schmidt will always be remembered but new heroes emerged from the 1993 team. That club went from a last-place finish the previous year to the division title, leading the NL East for all but one day of the season. Lenny Dykstra was second in the MVP race; Terry Mulholland, John Kruk, Darren Daulton and Dave Hollins were All-Stars but this was a total team effort.

This team didn't have one nickname such as the Whiz Kids or Wheeze Kids. They had many names because they were a group of athletes who became Phillies through shrewd moves by General Manager Lee Thomas.

As underdogs, the Phillies dumped the favored Atlanta Braves, 4-2, to make their third World Series appearance in the last 13 years. Their spring training neighbors, the Toronto Blue Jays, were the opponents. Jim Fregosi joined Moran, Sawyer, Green and Owens as managers who led the Phillies to an NL pennant and a trip to the Fall Classic.

A very entertaining World Series abruptly ended with Joe Carter's three-run homer, which gave the Blue Jays their second consecutive World Championship.

Ten years later, the Phillies family said goodbye to Veterans Stadium through a season-long series of "Field of Memories" events, which culminated with an emotional closing ceremony on September 28, 2003, featuring dozens of current and former Phils.

In 2004, the Phillies moved into their new home, Citizens Bank Park, a state-of-the-art, grass and dirt ballpark which will be the site of many memories to come.

Phillies baseball is more than wins and losses. It involves people.

People who were Hall of Famers during the early years of the franchise ... Harry Wright, Ed Delahanty and Sam Thompson.

People who reached fans, first on the airwaves, and later on television ... Gene Kelly, By Saam, Ashburn, Bill Campbell, Harry Kalas, Andy Musser and Chris Wheeler.

Oh yes. There's one more important figure in Phillies history ... Phillie Phanatic, the big green furry creature who made its debut as the team's mascot on April 25, 1978. As with the 122-year-old baseball team, the Phanatic, too, is a tradition.

ALL-TIME ROSTER

Includes all players who have participated in one or more official National League games with the Phillies from 1883-2004...a total of 1,765 players. The most common names in Phillies history have been: Miller (14), Johnson (11), Smith (10) and Jones (9).

JACKIE ROBINSON

Commissioner Bud Selig announced that all teams would retire this number in 1997 during the 50th anniversary of Robinson becoming the first African American to play in Major League Baseball...Robinson made his debut that season with the Brooklyn Dodgers, who retired his number following his 1972 death...In 1987, the National League Rookie of the Year Award was renamed after Robinson...Pitching coach Galen Cisco was the last Phillie to wear the number. (The 1997 rule was grandfathered, meaning a player who had worn the number could retain it until that player retired. Mike Jackson, who wore #42, was signed as a free agent by the Phillies for the 2000 season but he did not pitch in a game that year.)

ALL-STAR GAMES

	NL	3	10	0

Bobby Doerr's 3-run homer in the second inning propelled the AL Stars to their third straight victory before 31,938. Vince DiMaggio led the NL with a single, triple and home run. It was the first ASG played entirely under the lights. Winner: Emil Leonard; Loser: Mort Cooper. Game was shortwaved to American fighting men throughout the world.

	AL	2	5	0

Only game in ASG history not to go nine innings as rain halted play after five innings. Jackie Robinson hit a solo homer in the first and Hank Sauer hit a two-run homer onto the LF roof in the fourth for all the NL runs. Two Philadelphia pitchers played in the game: Curt Simmons (Phillies) started for the NL and Bobby Shantz (A's) pitched the fifth for the AL, fanning Whitey Lockman, Robinson and Stan Musial to the delight of 32,785 fans. Winner: Bob Rush; Loser: Bob Lemon. Game was broadcast on Mutual Radio System and on NBC TV.

RICHIE ASHBURN SPECIAL ACHIEVEMENT AWARD

Established in 1998 in honor of the memory of Richie Ashburn, who spent nearly 50 years with the Phillies, the award is given annually to a member of the Phillies organization who has demonstrated the same loyalty, dedication and passion for the game as the award's namesake.

1998 - Pete Cera: A long-time employee who was with the Phillies from 1938 through 1998. He was a minor league traveling secretary, clubhouse manager, trainer and closed his outstanding career as assistant clubhouse manager in the major leagues.

1999 - Paul Owens: With the Phillies from 1955 until his death in 2003. Served as minor league manager, scout, Farm Director, Player Development Director, General Manager (1980 World Champions), major league manager (1983 NL Champions), assistant to the President and Senior Advisor to the General Manager.

2000 - Ray Krise: First began working in the Phillies ticket office in 1951. Three years later he was named Assistant Ticket Manager. He became Ticket Manager in 1962, a position he held until semi-retirement in 1986.

2001 - Eddie Ferenz: Joined the Phillies in 1966 as the Public Address announcer at Connie Mack Stadium. In October 1969, he became the team's Traveling Secretary, a position he held for 30 years.

2002 - Maje McDonnell: Joined the Phillies in 1947 and was a member of the Whiz Kids coaching staff in 1950. He's also served as a coach, scout and goodwill ambassador and currently works in the team's Community Relations Department.

As Vice President of Public Relations, "The Baron" oversees the media relations, community relations and creative services staffs, and was an instrumental part of the Field of Memories events at Veterans Stadium in 2003.

2004 - Christine Long: A tireless and dedicated employee who joined the Phillies in 1971 as secretary to the Director of Promotions. As Director of Entertainment, she has orchestrated pre-game events at Veterans Stadium and Citizens Bank Park with precision clockwork to entertain millions of fans.

BILL GILES AND LARRY ROJAS AWARDS

Two awards were established in 1999 to honor minor league players who share the same attributes as the awards' namesakes: Bill Giles and Larry Rojas.

Giles and Rojas share a love and respect for the game of baseball, an outstanding work ethic and pride in being a member of the Phillies organization.

Giles climbed the baseball ladder from the minors to the majors, working in numerous executive capacities with the Astros and Phillies until getting a group together to purchase the Phillies in 1981. He was President and General Partner until 1997 when he became Chairman.

Rojas was born in Cuba and played minor league baseball with the Phillies. He has also served as a minor league coach and manager, spring training coordinator, scout and liaison for the Hispanic players in the system.

ROBERTO CLEMENTE AWARD PRESENTED BY JOHN HANCOCK

Since 1971, Major League Baseball has annually presented an award that recognizes a player who best exemplifies the game of baseball through sportsmanship, community involvement and positive contributions to his team.

In 1973, following the tragic death of Roberto Clemente, the award was named to honor the man whose spirit and goodwill will always be remembered. The 12-time All-Star and Hall of Famer was killed in a plane crash in 1972 delivering food and medical supplies to earthquake victims of Nicaragua. The award, sponsored by John Hancock Financial Services, recognizes those individuals who truly understand the value of helping others.

WALL OF FAME

The tradition of honoring alumni of both the Phillies and the Philadelphia Athletics began in 1978 at Veterans Stadium in a 200-level display originally called the Philadelphia Baseball Hall of Fame. Former Phillies continue to be honored at Citizens Bank Park in the Wall of Fame display located in the Memory Lane section of Ashburn Alley. The Philadelphia Zoo is the sponsor of Memory Lane and the Wall of Fame.

Phillies players with five or more years of service are eligible. In addition, position players require a minimum of 700 games, while pitchers need a minimum of 180 games to be eligible. Managers and coaches need four or more years of service.

All candidates must be retired for three years before they can be eligible for the 25-man ballot. Consideration is given to longevity, ability, contributions to the Phillies and baseball, character, plus special achievements.

REMEMBERING THE A'S

From 1978 through the final year of the Vet, 2003, members of the A's were also selected yearly. The A's were a member of the American League in Philadelphia from 1901 through the 1954 season when the franchise was moved to Kansas City.

A total of 25 former A's were part of the Philadelphia Baseball Hall of Fame, starting with Connie Mack, their long-time manager/owner who was inducted posthumously in 1978.

A large statue of Connie Mack once stood at Connie Mack Stadium on the south side of Lehigh Avenue. During the 1971 inaugural season at Veterans Stadium, the Phillies relocated the statue to the corner of Broad Street and Pattison Avenue. The Phillies moved it again during the final construction stages of Citizens Bank Park in March of 2004.

Mack's statue is located on the west side of Citizens Bank Way. Names of the 25 A's players who were honored at the Vet's Hall of Fame display have been added to Mack's statue so that fans will forever remember the A's.

FORD C. FRICK AWARD

The Ford C. Frick Award is presented annually to a broadcaster for "major contributions to baseball." The award, named after the late broadcaster and National League President, has been presented annually since 1978. Each award recipient is presented with a certificate during the Hall of Fame Induction Ceremony and is recognized in the "Scribes & Mikemen" exhibit in the Library of the National Baseball Hall of Fame. Long-time Phillies broadcaster By Saam received the award in 1990 and was joined in 2002 by his former broadcast partner, Harry Kalas.

J.G. TAYLOR SPINK AWARD

DID YOU KNOW?

The Phillies came into the National League in 1883, having moved from Worcester, Mass., where they were the Brown Stockings. They have been known as the Phillies ever since, the longest-running team name in pro sports. Although the club was known as the Blue Jays in 1944 and 1945, the name was never officially changed from the Phillies.

2004 MINOR LEAGUE NOTES

PACKIN 'EM IN

The Phillies' minor league affiliates continued their attendance success in 2004. Although they fell to second place behind Akron this year in total attendance, Reading still managed to finish first in average attendance (7,138) for the second straight season. The R-Phils' total attendance (478,257) ranked fourth in all of double-A baseball. Meanwhile, in their inaugural season at Bright House Networks Field, single-A Clearwater led the Florida State League in total (131,101) and average (2,078) attendance. On July 21, the Threshers eclipsed the franchise season attendance record of 97,687 previously set by the Clearwater Phillies in 1997 at Jack Russell Stadium. Once again, single-A Lakewood led the South Atlantic League in total (438,546) and average (6,575) attendance. Lakewood has now led the SAL in attendance in all four years of its existence.

HOWARD THE GREAT

2004 was a breakout year for first baseman Ryan Howard. The slugger, who started his season at double-A Reading and concluded it in Philadelphia, set and broke records and collected several awards. At Reading, Howard's 37 home runs broke the club's single-season record, originally set by Greg Luzinski (33) in 1970. He also broke Reading's single-season record of 34, set by Harold Jones of the Reading Indians in 1960. At the time of his promotion to triple-A Scranton/Wilkes-Barre, Howard led the Eastern League in homers, RBI (102) and slugging percentage (.647). By the time of his September call-up, Howard's minor league totals for the season included a .291 average, a minor league-leading 46 home runs and 131 RBI, making him only the fifth minor league player since 1956 - and first since 1982 - to have at least 46 HR and 131 RBI in a season.

STREAKING

In 2004 the Phillies farm system had two players each reach league-best, 20-plus game hit streaks. Infielder Pablo Ozuna's 27-game streak from late July into August broke triple-A Scranton/Wilkes-Barre's club record of 25 set by Ricky Otero in 1997 and matched by David Doster in 2000. During his streak, Ozuna hit .423, raising his average from .271 to .309. Ozuna, who spent 2003 in the Rockies organization, also had the International League's longest road hitting streak of 26 games from July 16 to September 4. In Clearwater, outfielder Chris Roberson's hit streak of 23 games was tops in the Florida State League. From May 11 through June 4, he hit .442 with 21 RBI and 25 runs scored. At one point in the streak, Roberson had 10 consecutive multi-hit games.

On May 1, former Scranton/Wilkes-Barre manager Marc Bombard reached another major milestone in his managerial career. That Saturday, the Red Barons defeated visiting Ottawa, 6-2, to give Bombard his 1,500th career win. With 1,556 wins, he left the minor league managing ranks with the most wins of all active minor league skippers, and after 22 years of managing (eight with Scranton), his career record now stands at 1,556-1,350 (.535). With Scranton, his win-loss record was 574-506 (.531). Bombard won his 1,000th game as a manager in 1997, his first year with the Red Barons.

THE BOURN SUPREMACY

Not to be outdone by Ryan Howard's tremendous season, outfielder Michael Bourn quietly had a notable season of his own for Lakewood. In just his second pro season, Bourn set two franchise records and led the SAL in stolen bases, on-base percentage and triples and finished second in walks. His 58 stolen bases fell one shy of the Lakewood record set by Chris Roberson in 2003 and his .433 on-base percentage and 14 triples eclipsed both of Howard's 2002 records of .367 and six, respectively. As a team, the BlueClaws led the league in walks (543) and were second in stolen bases (160). Bourn had 13 multi-steal games, including three in which he stole three bags or more, and also walked in 11 straight games, July 4-16 (18 total walks).

GULF COAST ARMS

Just one year after ranking third to last in team pitching, the Gulf Coast Phillies pitching staff rebounded in 2004 to finish third-best in the league. Led by Paul Owens Award winner Scott Mitchinson, the staff posted a 3.12 ERA, allowed the fewest walks (129) and had the third-most shutouts (5) in the league. Mitchinson led the GCL in wins with a perfect 7-0 record and in innings (62.2). The Australian right-hander finished second with a 1.75 ERA and third in strikeouts (60). Teammate RHP Maximino Delacruz ranked third with a 2.11 ERA and fourth in innings pitched (59.2). Right-hander Kelvin Pichardo finished second in strikeouts with 62.

FRONT OFFICE AWARDS

Along with the opening of Bright House Networks Field came assorted honors for the Clearwater Threshers. General Manager John Cook, who left the team following the season, won the Florida State League's Executive of the Year award, while Head Groundskeeper Opie Cheek and his staff earned the Sports Turf Manager of the Year and the Best Overall Award. Additionally, the league selected the Threshers as a nominee for the John H. Johnson President's Trophy, Minor League Baseball's top award. As voted on by each organization of each league, the President's Trophy is presented annually to honor the complete baseball franchise - based on franchise stability, contributions to league stability, contributions to baseball in the community and promotion of the baseball industry. For the third time in their four-year existence, Lakewood took home the South Atlantic League's Club Merit Award for most outstanding club operation. BlueClaws exec Geoff Brown was also named GM of the Year.

The Phillies enter their eighth season in 2005 with the all-sports cable network, Comcast SportsNet (CSN). Comcast will carry 108 games, mainly on the CSN cable channel, in addition to three games from spring training. CSN will once again enhance the fan experience with increased clarity of the action, as it continues to produce select home Phillies games in high definition from its state-of-the-art mobile production facility.

WPSG-UPN 57 begins its seventh season with the Phils this year. They will broadcast three Grapefruit League games and 44 games during the regular season. UPN 57's sister station, CBS-3, will carry the season opener on April 4.

Of the 162 Phillies games, 153 will be broadcast locally, with 8 other games being picked up nationally by FOX. The Phils have also been selected for ESPN's Sunday Night Baseball on April 17, with the potential of 3 additional appearances in the second half of the season.

Once again, the 30-minute pre-game show Phillies Weekly will be aired before every Sunday telecast. Long-time Philadelphia sports anchor Ron Burke returns for his fifth season as host of the program.

PHILLIES IN THE COMMUNITY

The Phillies organization takes great pride in giving back to the community. Off the field, the Phillies have been a team to count on for decades through their efforts of reaching out to those in need.

Phillies Charities, Inc. serves as the fundraising arm of the Phillies organization and donates to dozens of non-profit organizations each year. In 2004, Phillies Charities made a donation of $612,000 to the ALS Association of Philadelphia, which is the club's primary charity. Since adopting ALS (Lou Gehrig's Disease) in 1984, the Phillies and Phillies Charities have raised over $7.4 million for ALS research and patient services. Also, Phillies Charities raised an additional $183,000 in 2004, most of which was donated through its Discretionary Fund to local, non-profit organizations.

Among the groups benefiting from the Phillies and Phillies Charities are the American Heart Association, Philadelphia Stars Negro Leagues Memorial Park, Children's Hospital, Children's Miracle Network, Boy Scouts of America, the Junior Baseball Federation, PAL, Boys & Girls Clubs, Make-A-Wish Foundation, Philadelphia Futures, Special Olympics, Spanish-Speaking Council of Philadelphia and Philadelphia Reads.

The Phillies are proud of their rich history of player and staff community involvement over the years. Bobby Abreu was named the 2004 winner of the Phillies Community Service Award for his contributions to the community last season. Additionally, Pat Burrell, Larry Bowa, Mike Lieberthal, Jason Michaels, Jimmy Rollins, Jim Thome, Billy Wagner and Randy Wolf were among the Phillies who donated time and money to a variety of charities.

Not to be overlooked are the players' wives, who also volunteer their time and efforts to raise dollars for various charities. In 2004, the wives raised over $100,000 for several worthy causes including Angel Flight, the Maternity Care Coalition, Easter Seals and the People's Emergency Center.

Phillies front office employees also give of their time, money and efforts in several ways...contributing canned goods for the annual Boy Scouts Food Drive, donating used winter coats to the needy, helping to cook and serve a holiday dinner for the homeless, plus many other events.

Education and literacy are at the forefront of the Phillies' community efforts. "Phillies Phundamentals" is an after school program started by the club in January 2001 which runs year-round in several inner-city recreation centers. The program, which targets at-risk children, uses baseball concepts to make learning fun for kids. Additionally, children from the program are brought to a Phillies game and get the opportunity to meet a player. Jim Thome serves as Chairman of the program. In the fall of 2004, the Phillies started the popular "Be A Phanatic About Reading" program, which reaches thousands of elementary students in Philadelphia public schools.

The Phillies annually support many education-based programs, including "Breaking Barriers," the Philadelphia Free Library Reading Program, the Philadelphia School District reading program and the Multiple Sclerosis READaTHON. Also, the "Phillies Harmony Club", which was started in January 2003, provides recreational and educational activities for mentally disabled children and adults.

For the past 11 years, former Phillies pitcher Dickie Noles has been an invaluable member of the Phillies organization, speaking annually to thousands of school-aged children on the dangers of drugs and alcohol and the importance of education. Noles, a certified drug and alcohol counselor, visits dozens of schools each year.

The Phillies are also committed to developing and teaching youth in the Philadelphia area the game of baseball. Rookie and RBI Leagues are designed not only to encourage inner-city children (from ages 6-18) to play baseball, but also to teach them the value of teamwork and sportsmanship. Combined, the programs involve more than 7,000 boys and girls yearly, making it the largest RBI and Rookie League program in the country. In addition, the Phillies also initiated and host three local amateur baseball tournaments. The Carpenter Cup is a tournament designed to give exposure to the top tri-state area high school baseball players; the Liberty Bell Classic is an annual Division I college tournament, while the Giles Cup, started in 2001, is a college tournament for Division II schools.

Bobby Abreu was the 2004 winner of the fourth annual Phillies Community Service Award for his outstanding contributions to the community. The presentation was made by former Phillies center fielder Garry Maddox.

Consecutive-Game Playing Streak: A consecutive-game playing streak shall extend if the player plays one half-inning on defense, or if he completes a time at bat by reaching base or being put out. A pinch-running appearance only shall not extend the streak. If a player is ejected from a game by an umpire before he can comply with the requirements of this rule, his streak shall continue.

Waivers: Major League waivers must be secured for all Major League trades from August 1st until the day after the regular season concludes. No waivers are required to trade a Major League player at any other time.

RAIN RULES

The right to postpone the playing of a game is vested in the home club with the exception of the final series between two clubs beginning on or after June 1, at which time the responsibility shifts to the Umpire-in-Chief. Once a game has started, the Umpire-in-Chief has sole authority to determine if a game should be suspended, when it can be resumed or if it should be terminated because of bad weather or unfit playing conditions. The Official Playing Rules provide that when a game has been temporarily suspended, umpires must wait at least 30 minutes before calling the game.

HOW TO FIGURE

On-Base Percentage: Divide the on-base total (hits, walks, hit by pitcher, and interference) by total plate appearances (at-bats, walks, hit by pitcher and sacrifices).

Fielding Percentage: Divide the total putouts and assists by total chances (putouts, assists and errors).

Magic Number: Determine the number of games yet to be played, add one, then subtract the number of games ahead in the loss column of the standings from the closest opponent.

There's no such thing as "too convenient."

All our branches are open 7 days a week.

All of our Philadelphia area locations are open seven days a week. That gives us the most seven-day branches in town. And it gives you the convenience of doing your banking where you want, when you want. So stop by your neighborhood branch any day, Monday through Friday. And Saturday. And Sunday. We'll be here.
